Alma is joining the NHP team after taking a sabbatical abroad – a long-anticipated personal goal. She moved to Colorado in 2017 from her native Southern California where she obtained her master's degree in Social Work. She applied her degree in the healthcare industry first as a grant writer then provider relations, before progressing into contracting and network development. Alma has worked with NHP since its foundation in 2018 and is now delighted to be an official member of the NHP team. Alma is passionate about the Colorado outdoors and spends her free time running, hiking and camping.

Fun Fact: Alma has encountered six bears during her trail runs and races in the Colorado mountains. They have been at a safe distance except the encounter with a Momma bear and her 2 cubs that led to the group backtracking for more than a mile.
